

Let's Find Synonyms

Synonyms are different words that have the same meaning.

Example: Happy and Joyful

Find a word that means the same as the underlined word.

1. The teacher was sitting on her sofa when she got an idea!!!

chair                      skateboard                      couch                      dogbed

2. She thought that perhaps her students would like a special treat.

Muffin                      goody                      lunch                      diamond

3. "What kind of goody can I make that would be delicious?" she pondered.

Ran                      walked                      thought                      helped

4. Something we could decorate would be magnificent.

Fantastic                      fun                      awful                      gross

5. An idea popped in her head, "Ah ha" she said, and then she headed to the market.

Garage                      relax                      lunchroom                      store

6. She walked out of her house and realized that the weather was frigid outside and she needed a jacket.

Hot                      warm                      cold                      sunny

7. She got to the store safely, collected all of the supplies and drove home in 1 hour.

Baseballs                      ingredients                      argue                      fix

8. She mixed up all of the ingredients, poured the batter into little tiny pans, then put them in the oven to bake for 14 minutes.

Threw                      opened                      stirred in                      mad

9. After 14 minutes they were finished and ready to take into school. "Yummy, wait until the students munch these!" she exclaimed.

Sit                      rest                      child                      eat